A new Salem civic club, the Dale Carnegie Club International, was granted its charter at a diner meeting at the Lape Hotel last night attended by 32 charter members.

Present also were Mayor Dean Cranmer, and Hobart Butcher, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Guest speaker was Donald M. Hodgkins of Cleveland, managing director of the Northern Ohio Institute, sponsors of Dale Carnegie courses. Hodgkins presented the local club's charter to Ernest Moser, president.

The club is open only to graduates of Dale Carnegie courses in speaking, human relations and leadership. At present there are 72 graduates of the local course cosponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

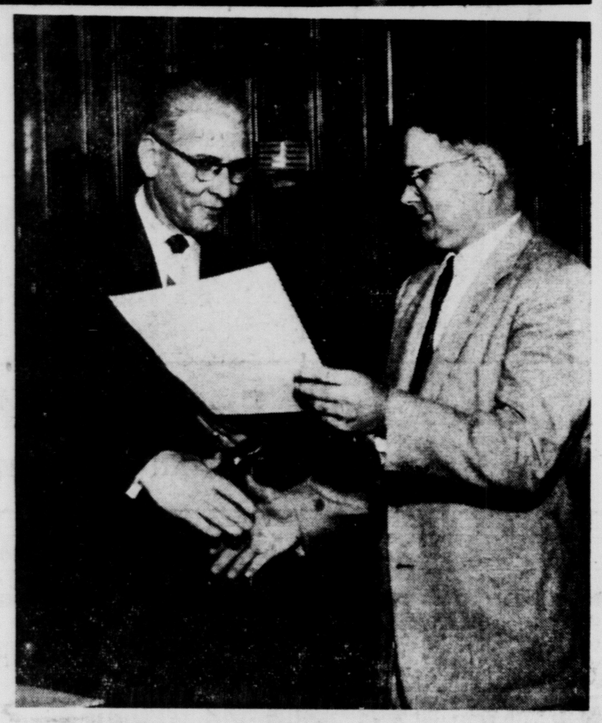

The Dale Carnegie Club will convene twice monthly on the first and third Wednesdays

Salem's organization is the 353rd Dale Carnegie club in the United States. There are also 27 in six foreign countries. International membership totals 15,000.

First officers of the local group are Moser, president; Frank Diehl, vice president; Dale Klingensmith, secretary; and Howard Schaeffer, treasurer.

The non-profit organization sets as its goals for the Carnegie graduates: To continue the individual's program of self-improvement; further develop leadership abilities; win additional friends from among graduates of other classes; improve ability to work with other people; and become a beter executive through continued study and practice of human relations.

A fall Dale Carnegie course will get underway this month for district residents.

School Patrols To Be Set Up Here After Lapse Of 3 Years

In an effort to assure greater safety for school children, the city schools, in cooperation with the Columbiana County American Automobil Association and the police department, will sponsor a safety patrol, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer announced today.

The patrol, composed of 16 sixth grade boys, will augment the force of four paid men who help guide students across intersections during the school year.

According to William Reardon, city safety director, the patrol, which was discontinued three years ago, functioned for 23 years prior to that and in that time not one student traffic accident was reported. St. Paul's School, which did not disband the patrol, will continue again this year.

The automobile club will furnish members of the patrol with badges, belts, flags and flagpoles, and a city patrolman will be named to supervise the operation of the group.

The youths will be stationed two at an intersection, except in front of Fourth St. School where there will be four. The intersections at Lincoln and 4th St., Ellsworth and 4th, and State St. and Union will each have two patrolmen while the four adult patrolmen will be stationed at the intersections of 12th St. and N. Ellsworth Ave., Union and State, Lincoln and Franklin and Broadway and Columbia. However the patrolman at Broadway and Columbia might be transferred to Lundy and 2nd St.

As an additional safety factor, the city is in the process of painting yellow crosswalks at intersections near schools and is placing double yellow center lines leading up to the intersections to prevent motorists from passing each other in the school vicinities.

Miss Quinlan Leaves For Pageant Friday

Salem will receive a fleeting glimpse of the new Miss Ohio, Barbara Quinlan of Alliance Friday as she passes through the city on her way to Atlantic City. Miss Quinlan will be escorted through Salem by State Patrol officers and local police.

Although no stops are scheduled, the 20-year-old brown haired beauty should reach Salem city limits on Route 62 between 1:15 and 1:45 p.m. A five-car caravan including Alliance city officials as well as civic leaders is escorting Miss Quinlan to the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The committee in charge said that the route in Salem would be on State St. to Ellworth, turning right to Pershing, proceeding east to Lincoln, and then east to Columbiana, where another escort will meet the party.

Plans call for Miss Quinlan to ride in an open car if possible through Salem.

Miss Quinlan made a final appearance at an Alliance theater last night and received a going-away gift from local merchants of luggage. Previously the new Miss Ohio was the recipient of $1,200 in cash to enable her to equip her wardrobe for the Atlantic City pageant.

Pachuco Mark Crosses Nation As Symbol Of Youthful Hoodlumism

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tattooed mark of the Pachuco has swept across the nation as a symbol of modern-day youthful hoodlumism.

Its common form is a cross with a sort of halo of dots, made with a pin or knife and ink on the web between the thumb and forefinger, or on the arm or chest. It puzzles and worries civil and military authorities in many areas, but in Los Angeles it is old stuff, considered virtually passe.

Is it smart-aleck feeding of the young ego, naive copy-cat activity or a sinister secret terrorist organization?

A Los Angeles authority, Police Lt. Richard D. Whitley of the juvenile detail and former commander of the gang detail established in 1948, said today he has no evidence of any national organization of Pachucos.

On the contrary, he said, the youthful gags of this and other large cities in which there may be Pachuco members have no formal organization; no officers, dues, bylaws or rules. The fellow who is the toughest and talks the best is the leader; the "organization" is confined to tight geographical or neighborhood boundaries.

The Pachuco tattoo has appeared recently on 30 airmen at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill.; in Kansas City; in Des Moines, Iowa, where police called it "juvenile copy-cat stuff"; at Lackland AFB, Tex.; at Sampson AFB, Geneva, N. Y.; on five AWOL men at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio; in Columbus and the Ohio State Penitentiary; at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and nearby Clarksville, Tenn.; on civilians in Omaha, Neb., Chicago and New York; and on two former bar girls in vice-ridden Phenix City, Ala.

Lt. Whitley, who flew to Chanute to advise the military on the Pachuco problem, said:

"I am convinced that this recent spread is simply a symbol of unsocial youth. One boy hears about it, or sees the mark on somebody else in jail or in the military guardhouse, and thinks it would be a good idea to have his own mark to boast about. Chances are many haven't the slightest idea what 'Pachuco' means.

"We know what it means but

GOP Leaders Confident

Tell Reporters Party Will Hold Own In West

Editor's Note—This is the first of two articles reporting the claims of Republican leaders in 26 key states on how their party will fare in the November election battle for control of Congress.

By JACK BELL and REED SMITH

CINCINNATI (AP) — Republican leaders excuded confidence today that the GOP will more than hold its own in the western half of the country in the battle for control of Congress.

Through their public statements, however ran some dark threads of doubt about the farmers' reaction to the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support program and fears of possible party losses in depressed employment areas.

In interviews with Associated Press reporters, organization leaders attending the Republican National Committee campaign strategy conference which ended yesterday claimed a net gain of 17 House and 5 Senate seats in 14 key Midwestern, Rocky Mountain and Far Western states.

The present Senate lineup is 48 Republicans, 46 Democrats, 1 independent and 1 vacancy. In the House, there are 218 Republicans 213 Democrats, 1 independent and 3 vacancies.

No GOP National Committee member or state chairman was willing to concede publicly any losses to the Democrats, although Vice President Nixon said frankly such results were possible in areas where unemployment is high.

Michigan was mentioned as among such areas and John Feikens, state GOP chairman, said this factor must be taken into account. He said economic conditions in October might determine the Michigan outcome in November elections.

"The economic situation in Michigan is tight,' he said. "We Republicans think it will improve before the election and that it may prove the determining factor."

Couple Jailed Here For Bus Commotion

A married couple and their eight-year-old son were taken from a Chicago - bound Greyhound bus early this morning when the bus driver complained to a city policeman that the couple had been creating a disturbance.

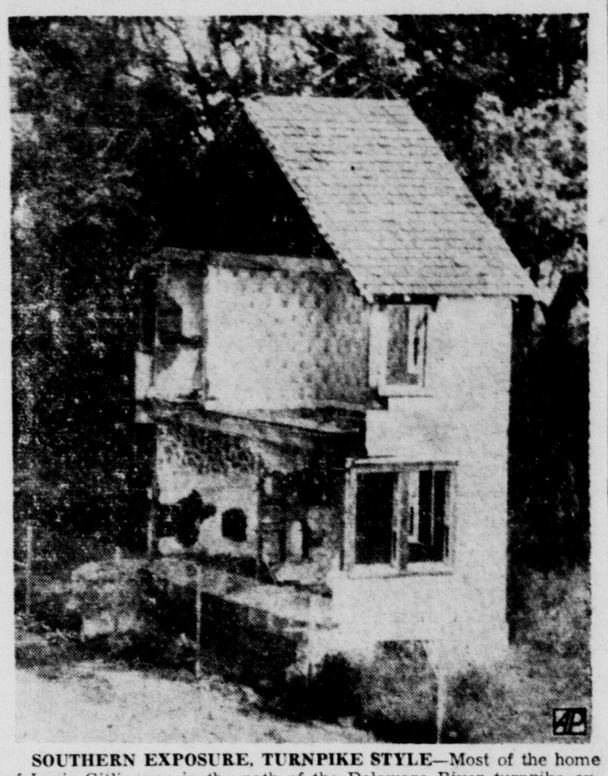

Andrew Johnson, 48, of Philadelphia, and his wife, Florence, were taken off the bus at 6:05 when the driver told a patrolman directing traffic at a fire in the 700 block of E. State that the couple had been unruly and were intoxicated.

Together with their son, Leroy, the couple were taken to city jail where the youth complained of stomach pains. Police feared he was suffering an attack of appendicitis and he was rushed to the Central Clinic. Tests at the Clinic revealed that the child was suffering hunger pains.

The couple were charged with intoxication, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. A hearing was set for later today.

The part that was on ground not taken over by the turnpike authority doesn't concern highway engineers. They just left that part standing. They are now engaged in litigation over damages the authority will pay for their properties.

Legion Hears Ambassador Henry Lodge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., said today he has proof that the Chinese Communists five years ago were given the job of spearheading "an organized Communist attempt to conquer all of Asia."

Lodge, U.S. representative to the United Nations, told the American Legion in a prepared talk that this is one of several reasons why admitting Red China to the U.N. "would be an insult to the entire principle of collective security."

The ambassador spoke to weary delegates, on the final day of their 36th annual convention, as they struggled through a business log-jam, dominated by anticommunist resolutions and including several strongly opposing U.N. membership for the Peiping regime.

In addition to acting on a flock of policy statements, legion delegates choose today a new national commander before adjourning their convention sometime this afternoon.

They worked overtime yesterday, passing a flock of resolutions reaffirming their stand for preferential treatment of veterans in government employment and for other benefits, but the business built up into a heavy carryover.

The convention defeated attempts to place curbs on the legion's fun-loving subsidiary, the 40 and 8 society, after a heated floor fight with overtones of the racial segregation issue.

2nd St. Designated One-Way; Water Crews Move Hydrants

City water department crews, directed by Water Commissioner Aubrey Hayes, following closely behind construction workers rooting up the final layer of pavement on State St., began yesterday to move back fire hydrants and water curb valves.

At the same time Mayor Dean B. Cranmer announced that 2nd St. between Lincoln Ave. and Jennings would become a one - way street.

The designation of that part of 2nd St. as a one-way thoroughfare for westbound traffic was necessitated because of the congestion at the intersection of State St. and Ellsworth Ave.

Service department crews have posted one-way signs along the five-block-long 2nd St. which will lead westbound vehicles from Routes 62, 45, and 14 along 2nd St. to Jennings and then back to State St.

Eastboud traffic will follow a route south on Ellsworth and then east on Pershing to Lincoln and back to State St. The possibility of designating Pershing a one-way street for eastboud traffic is being considered, if the State St. and Ellsworth Ave. intersection continues to be congested, Cranmer said.

Mayor Cramer explained that this plan will remain in effect until the construction crews get to the intersection of State and Ellsworth, which the will be blocked off while it is torn up and repaved immedately to become the first portion of the street to be resurfaced.

While the intersection is closed east-bound traffic will be directed over Sharp Ave. to Pershing, east on Pershing to Lincoln and then

Senators Speed Session, Hear 3 Of 5 Counts

More Charges May Be Brought On Basis Army-McCarthy Row

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) said today he will file a formal objection if most of the specific censure charges aimed at Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) "go by default."

There were indications for a time that that might happen in the rapid pace of a special Senate committee heading into the third day of investigations based on Flanders' resolution to condemn McCarthy's official conduct. Then the picture changed a bit.

Flanders himself has filed 33 separate charges in support of his resolution. And he said in an interview:

"I would not be satisfied to let most of them go by default. I would appeal, and send my brief to the committee, even if it had recessed."

Senators Morse (Ind-Ore) and Fulbright (D-Ark) have leveled an additional 13 charges against McCarthy. Some of the accusations overlap and the six-man committee investigating them has sifted them down into five general categories. The categories omit a number of accusations Flanders made.

In the first two days of hearings, the committee finished putting in evidence on three of the five main groups of charges, except for possible odds and ends, with McCarthy sitting by largely silent, leaving his case in the hands of Atty. Edward Bennett Williams.

That left two to go, and these are largely interlaced with the recent McCarthy-Army hearings and the divergent findings of the subcommittee that conducted them.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) said at first that all the evidence on the remaining charges could be put in today. Then he hedged, after a closed-door committee session yesterday, and said this wasn't certain.

At that stssion, the committee began looking over the report on the McCarthy-Army set-to. As a result, Watkins said, there is "a possibility" the five classes of charges may be expanded to take

Police Investigate Three Burglaries

Three burglaries that occurred last night in the city are under investigation, police report.

R. W. Campbell, manager of the People's Lumber Co., 457 W. State St., reported to police this morning that someone had broken into the office at the lumber company and had stolen an undetermined amount of change from a Coca Cola machine.

Entrance was gained by breaking glass in a rear door and then unbolting the night lock.

Two city patrolmen, cruising on S. Ellsworth Ave., noticed the window blinds at the Andalusia Dairy drawn at 1 a.m. today. Investigation revealed that the back door had been forced open and that the safe had been broken into. The owner, Fred Campbell, was unable to say how much money had been taken.

The Salona Supply Co., 439 W. Pershing reported that someone ransacked their trucks and siphoned gasoline from one of them some time last night.

Seek Talks On Role of Germany

May Rearm Nation As NATO Partner

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States officials tend to favor an emergency meeting of the North Atlantic Allies' foreign ministers at New York late this month to seek agreement on West Germany's role in the defense of Western Europe.

The most workable solution now available, in the opinion of top officials here, is for the 14 members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to make Germany a member with some safeguards to prevent a revival of German militarism along with German rearmament.

Capitals of the Western nations have thrown out a series of suggestions for dealing with the German problem since the French Assembly buried the European Defense Community project under a heavy vote Monday. Out of this widespread diplomatic upheaval several points are coming clear:

1. The U.S. and British governments both hope for German membership in NATO, which requires unanimous approval of the 14 members. Press reports said the Churchill Cabinet so decided at London yesterday, and Secretary of State Dulles had indicated a U.S. position to that effect in calling Tuesday for an emergency NATO session to deal with the problem.

HERE COMES THE LEGION—Color guards lead some 75,000 American Legionaires as they begin their hours-long march over the "Route of Heroes" in the nation's capital. An estimated 500,000-plus spectators jammed Pennsylvania and Constitution Avenues for the parade.

2. French Premier Mendes-France would like some kind of solution which would amount to an EDC substitute or "Little NATO" arrangement, or possibly second-class status for West Germany in the full NATO organization. American and British officials feel, however, that in letting EDC die, Mendes-France lost his last opportunity to impose any such long-time restraint upon Germany's future position and behavior.

3. French rejection of EDC produced a demand from the West German government for complete independence from the Allied occupation and a new Western defense arrangement "without discrimination against German troops." In its communique yesterday bidding for equal status with the Allies; Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Cabinet pointedly excluded France from the nations it said should negotiate the new military alliance.

4. Washington has acted with deliberate slowness in some respects to encourage the European nations, particularly France, to come up with new ideas for dealing with the aftermath of EDC's defeat. They are hoping that some line of action will develop clearly in Europe within the next two weeks.

5. The British government reportedly wants a meeting with leaders of the United States and the six EDC countries before the proposed NATO session. American officials indicated they would study the British suggestion, but they wondered whether such a meeting could be fitted in. The EDC countries are France, Italy, West Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

6. There is no thought in Washington, and apparently none in London, of making any effort to revive EDC. Nor is there any real interest here in trying to put over some watered-down version such as Mendes-France might suggest.

The urgent problem of the moment is regarded here as being to bolster the position of Adenauer by granting the Germans sovereign equality at the ealiest possible time—within a few weeks at the latest. Officials here say a German contribution is essential to the successful deftnse of Western Europe, and that every necessary step must be taken to prevent West Germany from reorienting its policies away from the Western Powers and toward Russia.

Plans for an emergency NATO session are just being developed. Dulles' Tuesday statement specified neither time nor place. However, Washington officials think that New York late this month should prove convenient to NATO ministers. Many of them are expected there for the Sept. 21 opening of the United Nations General Assembly.

Ambassador John C. Hughes, U.S. member on the Permanent NATO Council at Paris, has been instructed to arrange a prompt meeting of that body to work out time and place.

Philippines Seek Anti-Red Pact

'Pacific Charter' Presented For Asia

MANILA (AP) — The Philippines today sought early action on its "Pacific charter" against Communist aggression by committees doing spade work for an eight-nation Southeast Asia security conference.

President Ramon Magsayay said he will seek adoption by the conference opening here Monday of a four-point charter pledging tht eight nation to:

1. Support hte rights of all peoples in Southeast Asia to freedom and independence.
2. Take steps insuring the progress of Southeast Asian nations toward self-rule and independence.
3. Work ointly for economic, social and cultural development of Southeast Asian countries to raise standards of living and to strengthen their economies and social security programs.
4. Act jointly and individually against any force that would attempt to undermine or destroy the sovereignty, territorial integrity or freedom of Southeast Asian governments.

A Philippines spokesman said his government hopes to have these principles, closely resembling the Atlantic Charter, incorporated in the preamble or text of a nine-point treaty draft now before working committees.

If this is rejected, he said, the Philippines will ask the eight member nations to adopt the principles as a separate resolution when the foreign ministers convene Monday.

The Philippines also indicated it will carry to the foreign ministers its fight for a Southeast Asian collective security pact calling for immediate retaliation if one member is attacked.

Afraid Of Teen-Agers

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—How many people in America today are afraid of teen-agers? Physically afraid, I mean.

Teen-agers in every generation have annoyed or amused their elders, and generally been written off as pretty worthless (unless there happened to be a war on, and they were needed to carry guns.

Of course, this never was really true and few really believed it. If every crop of teen-agers was worse than the one before, the human race would have lost out long ago.

But it does seem some strange kind of mental bug is infecting our young. Parental authority is crumbling. Juvenile delinquency is growing. The kid gangs of yore used to think they were pretty daring when they joined in mass fist fights or made a midnight raid on a watermelon patch; the kid gangs today have gone a long step father. They want to rob a grocery store, steal a car, carry a shiv, ambush a grownup and kick him into a pulp.

The other night I was walking with my wife on a Manhattan street. A group of teen-age boys approached in full uniform—T-shirts and blue jeans. They were laughing, mauling each other and shouting boisterously, as cubs have done since time began.

"Don't say anything to them," said Frances, clutching my arm nervously.

"Say anything to them? I don't even know those kids."

"Well, don't say anything anyway," she said. "It might start trouble."

The kids passed by without even noticing us. They kept right on mauling each other and making those boisterous teen-age sounds that put the nerves of some forgetful adults on edge. But I remember being that age very well myself — the wilderness when you are half-boy, half-man and feeling pretty much at sea inside. And so I knew why they were so noisy — because in their hearts they felt insecure, just as a child whistles passing a lonely graveyard in the dark.

But I also knew what my wife was thinking. She was thinking of the rash of headlines about teen-age gangs beating up and killing casual passersby, or muscling down a woman for the change in her purse.

Since then I have heard several women say they were afraid to go out unescorted in the evening, and men compain "nobody's really safe on the street at night anymore because of those crazy kids."

If that is the situation here, then the same feeling must exist —to a smaller or greater extent— in dozens of other cities across the United States. For New York has no monopoy on kid gangs or juvenile delinquency.

How many adult Americans right now are actualy physically afraid of teen-agers? Undoubtedly more than at any previous period.

But it is a bitter commentary on our civlizaton that so many of us should regard in fear today the generation that is our only hope of tomorrow.

You can't condemn all teen-agers because a few learn the art of mayhem before they learn a trade, and get their laughs by clobbering strangers unconscious and dumping them into a river. The frightening thing is these examples of brutality aren't isolated.

Juvenile delinquency no loger is a adolescent pimple on our society. It is a spreading adolescent cancer.

By the time these kill-for-thrills teen-agers explode, it is too late. Neither the storm shelter of psychiatry nor the electric chair offers much of a real solution then.

It isn't a repair job. It's a problem of prevention. Some folks feel that if you switch a child often enough when it is young you won't have to pull an electric swtch on it later, but that makes it altogether too simple. Science must find a way to detect early in life the children with dynamite caps in their brains and society must share with their parents the responsibility of seeing they are helped to go right at a time when they can still be helped—before they explode and blow their own lives, and perhaps other lives, to pieces.

Who wants to go on being half-afraid of his neighbor's teen-age kids—and, often, his own?

Military Version On Constellation Tested

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—The Navy's new turboprop military version of the Super Constellation, the R7V2, has been successfully test flown.

Lockheed Aircraft Corp., builder of the personnel-cargo-evacuation craft, says it is the world's fastest propeller-driven transport with a cruising speed of 440 m.p.h. It is powered by four 5,500-horsepower turbine ropeller engines and can fly 16-ton loads across the nation nonstop in less than six hours.

The plane's maiden flight was made here yesterday.

Maid Dumps Ring Into Sink, Plumbers Find It

CONCORD, N. C. (AP)—The maid dumped a glassful of ammonia solution down the kitchen sink and Mrs. John O'Dell frantically called in a crew of plumbers.

Her $2,500 diamond ring was in the glass.

The plumbers placed a screen over the sewer feeder line from the block in which Mrs. O'Dell lives and cooperative neighbors turned on their water taps to flush the line.

Soon the ring was recovered.

Salem's Championship Band

Salem always has been proud of her American Legion Quaker City Band but that admiration became even greater when the band won second place in the national American Legion convention contest.

Competing among 60 Legion bands for national honors, the local bandsmen were outshone only by the crack Joliet, Ill., band which has won the national competition nine times. It's not easy to unseat a champion.

Joliet's ratin gwas 93,28. Salem's was 86.68, adjudged on the basis of marching ability, maneuvering, inspection and concert playing.

To Director Chester Brautigam, Assistant Director John Chick, Drill Master Byron Griffith, Manager Lee Hollinger and to the 36 bandsmen who comprise the outstanding Salem aggregation we offer our sincerest congratulations for a great achievement. Appreciation is voiced, too, to the Mullins Mfg., Corp., which financed the Washington trip after the Salem band won the Ohio Legion championship.

Our hearts will beat a little faster the next time the Quaker City band marches by.

Era Of Tempered Reasoning

A visit to Washington these days leaves the impression, even to the casual observer, that a decided change has come over the nation's capital. The city, itself, is no longer what it was a few short months ago. It has settled down.

Gone is the era of hectic confusion in government circles. Gone is the daily crisis. Gone is the cycle of emergency followed by emergency. The tempo now is one of steady advance toward a definite goal. The emphasis is on productive and effective work, intended to get the job done.

Without doubt, this is the result of a pattern laid down by the Eisenhower administraton. It reflects a planned and considered approach to the biggest jo bon earth, running this country. It is in sharp contrast to prior years when no one knew what to expect from day to day.

President Eisenhower has brought to the White House a concept of administration new in this generation. He himself is a hard worked. He has shown that he has a talent for handling a multitude of details in an orderly manner. He has displayed a quality of calm reasoning in meeting problems, whether major and critical in nature or minor and annoying. He has substituted persuasion for pressure.

The President asked the 83rd Congress to initiate a broad legislative program. There were a number of major questions to be considered in that program — tax revison, peacetime atomic energy, farm subsidies, foreign aid, the nation's heatlh, the debt limit, and Communist control. And there were a great many more items of a minor but important nature. The President didn't get everything he wanted. True, he scored a complete victory on some points. He won in varying degree on others. He lost completely on some of his requests.

But he isn't bitter toward those members of Congress who didn't vote 100 per cent for his proposals. He isn't threatening to purge those of his own party who didn't go along with him on every issue. Instead, he thanked Congress for what it had accomplished, and promised that he would keep on working for the balance of his program. And Congress, in keeping with the pattern, thanked ts administration leaders, regardless of party affiliation, for a job well done.

It looks as though an era of tempered reasoning has begun to take over in our national affairs.

Northwest Passage Was There

Soon after early explorers had discovered the land mass now known as North America, they began to dream of some way to bypass it. Until the engineers came to the rescue with the Panama Canal,, no way had been found. Voyagers had learned how to get around Cape Horn at the tip of South America, but it was too long a voyage, too full of hazards. What the voyagers hoped they might find was a northwest passage that would let ships filter through the mase of islands inside the Arctic Circle.

During August, two U. S. Navy icebreakers finally made a passage through McClure Strait, western entrance to the long-sought "Northwest Passage" that begins in Baffin Bay at the eastern end. The feat is of interest only to geographers, because it long since has been known that even in midsummer there would be no open water in the passage itself.

Explorers now rely on airplanes for the first glimpse of their new horizons. Globe circlers no longer use ships, except for leisurely voyaging. There are no land masses any more that seem to b einsurmountable barriers.

It never made sense to the early explorers that there wouldn't be some way to get through to the Arctic Ocean, starting west of Greenland. They were sure there was a passage if they could find it. They looked for 500 years. It was there all the time, and it wasn't worth finding.

10 Communist Votes In Assembly Defeat EDC

Whatever doubts have been expressed as to the wisdom of the virtually unanimous action of Congress in stripping the Communist party of its legal right to exist as a political party must have been swept away by the news dispatches from Paris telling how a bloc of 10 Communists sitting in the French National Assembly furnished the majority to kill the Allied plan for the defense of Europe.

Few Americans realize that the Communist party in France, which has been permitted to infiltrate labor unions and French cultural institutions, now has all the rights of any other political party there. It has elected 10 deputies to the French Parliament, and they contribute from their salaries to finance the Communist party. Their allegiance is more often to the Soviet government than to France.

This was dramatically illustrated not long ago when the French National Assembly rose in tribute to the fallen heroes of Dienbienphu in Indochina — but the 10 Communist deputies sat in silence.

The final vote rejecting the European Defense Community agreement was 319 to 264. But if the bloc of Communist votes — there were 99 present — were subs ract-ed, it would make the vote 264 in favor of the EDC treaty to 220 against it.

THE PRESENCE of the Communist bloc inside the French Parliament means that a Soviet - controlled group holds the balance of power in the government of one of America's principal allies, on whose territory many of our soldiers are based and where atomic weapons are necessarily located.

The French attitude, generally speaking, toward Communists in government is not as hostile as it is in America. There has been a well-defined effort lately to keep Communists out of the executive departments in Paris but, in a government where the legislature controls the executive departments, no cabinet is apparently willing to demand that Communists be deprived of their status as a political party.

There have been no parliamentary investigating committees in France to sound a warning and alert the French people to the dangers of Communist infiltration. Instead, the Communist party is accepted as a political entity rather than a conspiracy. This lack of awareness of the danger of allowing a group of deputies who are fostering the policies of a foreign power to occupy the legitimate status of a political party is one of the strangest paradoxes in French history.

One explanation given is that many of the Communist deptuies were prominent in the French underground during the period that the Nazis occupied France and that they became popular because of their wartime devotion to the cause of France. But little by little some French leaders have been disillusioned, and it will not be surprising if a new issue arises now in France —to find a way to outlaw the Communist party.

SOME STEPS have been taken in the last few years to cut down Communist representation by a change in the electoral law which reduces for the Communists the number of seats in proportion to the votes cast — a rule that does not affect non-Communist parties. But this apparently has not been enough to eliminate the Communist power.

Today, the 100 Communist deputies are a controlling bloc in the French Parliament. They have just been able to win for Soviet Russia one of its biggest diplomatic victories, as it is well known that Soviet propaganda and Communist partisans in France have worked for months to force a truce in Indochina and to defeat EDC.

As so often happens with a conspicuous issue, it is true that the EDC hau many weaknesses which made it possible for nationalisitc feelings to be aroused. The Communists merely exploited an unpopular plan, or rather one that was played up as likely to give Germany a change to rebuild its armament and attack France.

WITH OR WITHOUT any type of EDC plan, the rearmament of Germany has become essential to the defense of Europe. It will be interesting now to see how the Communists maneuver French policy to prevent, if possible, the adoption of any formula for German rearmament by the countries allied against Soviet Russia.

What they have needed in France is a few French McCarthys and, if they had had them, maybe the free world and the western alliance would be stronger today.

For the Communist party in France is not a political party— it is a full-fledged "fifth column" not unlike the one by which the Nazis penetrated the French Parliament and army prior to 1940 and thereby brought about the easy conquest of France.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

The Doctor Answers

There are some physical conditions which are not much of a menace to life or health, but which certainly exert a tremendous influence on one's outlook toward living.

— I am 43 years old and my face is so terrible I am ashamed to face the public. It is covered with pimples and enlarged pores. Can anything be done? I would rather be dead as I don't have any fun out of life.

A — This certainly sounds like a skin disease which could very well be acne. It should be possible for a skin specialist to make recommendations which would help enormously in improving the complexion. The psychological effect is evidently so serious that it seems that it would be well worth while to make an effort in this direction.

Q — I have what is called Baker's cyst with fluid gathered in the back of the knees. Can you discuss this?

A — This is a swelling behind the knee which is caused by the escape of fluid from the kne joint and is enclosed in a kind of sac or membrane. Removal of fluid through a needle is sometimes helpful. Heat or other measures of physio therapy are often used. If nothing else htlps, surgery is geneally consideed desiable.

Q — Will you please explain what is meant by a trigfer finger?

This is a peculiar condition in which a finger is likely to develop quick motions when it is bent or straightened, then suddenly snap in the direction one wants to move it. It is the sult of an inflammation of the tendons going to the finger, and is sometimes associated with pain or soreness.

Q — Would you please say something about Perthes disease as have a young relative who has it.

A — This is a rather unusual condition which inpolves the bone and cartilage at the upper end of the upper leg bone (femur) near the hip. ts cause is not clearly understood, and its treatment is not too satisfactory.

Q — Could exhaust fumes from a plant which processes tetrachloride cleaner fluid endanger residents within 200 feet of the plant?

A — It would seem unlikely that the fumes would reach as far as two hundred feet in a heavy enough concentration to cause any harm. This question, however, should be considered by the plant management and local authorities.

A Word to the Mayor

To The News: In my opinion a captain of police is more important than a secretary for Mayor Cranmer. A police captain is important to all citzens.

And, since all city councilmen did not know of the move to abolish the captain's job, it seems to me that this is a spur-of-the-moment idea from some unknown source, and brought up at this time because someone is unhappy about the results of the recent civil service tests.

Don't be pushed around, Mayor Cranmer, by persons looking for political gains. We elected you because you would not stand for this. Have the courage of your convictions, mayor.

U.S. No Longer Leader In The World

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

It is evident, from all that is happening in the world these days, that the United States is no longer the world leader. There will be Americans who will regret this change of position, but there is nothing that can be done about it. As a matter of fact, there is no world leader.

Sokolsky

Beginning with the Marshall Plan, the American concept of world leadership was to export capital to any country that would take it, for the purpose of strengthening that country, and to win it to our foreign policies.

-:-

THE COUNTRIES were strengthened and, as each one felt the sap of renewed vigor, it sensed the necessity for independence from the United States.

It would be possible to withdraw all aid and then some of these countries would flop on their faces, but that is not American policy. We go on strengthening these countries with our aid despite their open antagonism to us.

Great Britain, for instance, is the real stumbling block to the European Defense Community. As Great Britain will not join it, why should France? Why should anybody?

Sir Winston Churchill has for a decade spoken eloquently about a European Union, but there is not a scintilla of evidence that he has ever done anything about it.

IN THE RECENT show - down with Premier Mendes - France, he missed the chance of putting France into the EDC. If Churchill insists on Great Britain staying out, what arguments can the spellbinder produce for getting Mendes-France to put his country into it?

"Le Dauphine Libere" asks a very wise question:

"Will Churchill encourage the supporters of the treaty to put it rapidly into application? One must not forget the responsibility which Britain bears because of her abstention and hesitation. He might at any rate hold out the hope that she would ultimately rally to the EDC once the community had become a tagible reality.

Perhaps the answer lies in a speech delivered by Kuo Mo-jo Vice Chairman of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, at a reception in honor of Clement Attlee in Peking, when he said:

"OUR DISTINGUISHED guests here are well aware that since the end of the Second World War, as a result of the practice of the 'policy of strength,' of arms drives and war preparations, the world has been sharply divided into two groups — the East and the West —and the contacts between them have been artificially prevented, the cultural interchange and trade between them obstructed.

"This has caused the international situation to become tenser day by day and has constituted a great menace to world peace.

"Faced with this menace, an increasing number of people have in the last few years expressed a common dtsire. They demand that the different countries of the world resolve international disputes through negotiation so that the international tension may be gradually eased.

"THIS UNIVERSAL appeal found an initial fulfillment in the recent Geneva Conference. The achievements of the Geneva Conference testify that by means of negotiations any international dispute can be resolved reasonably and justly."

Geneva represented Red China's first and most diplomatic victory. At Geneva, it was Red China that eliminated the United States from world leadership. At Geneva, Great Britain and France joined with Soviet Russia and Red China against the United States.

This means a new day for the United States. We cannot become friends and associatts of Soviet Russia or Red China even if public opinion in the United States would have it so, which it will not.

THE REASON: it is the fixed policy of the Soviet Universal State to isolate the United States, to reduce its economic leadership in the world, to limit its politcal influence in Europe and Asia. To date, the Russian success in this drection is so outstanding that it would be stupid for the Russians to reverse their course.

By separating this country from Great Britain and France at Geneva, Soviet Russia has accomplished the first forward step in the isolation of the United States. The second can be the total failure of EDC. The third step would be a revival of the Little Entente which would indirectly make France an ally of the Soviet Universal State via Poland and Czechoslovakia.

As these steps develop, the United States will be forced to switch its focus from Europe to Asia.

Without Benefit Of Training

By TRUMAN TWILL

This fellow who dropped in today wanted to know about train ing dogs. "You have had experience," he said. "How do I keep a six - month - old cocker spaniel some friends gave us from barking all night?"

We asked whether he ever had owned or trained a dog. When he owned or trained a dog, the lid was off. We could speak freely. He didn't know what he was talking about and neither did we.

It is possible to have a lifetime of experience with dogs and still not know anything about training them, the same as it is possible to have children and still know nothing about training them.

In order to train a dog, you must be smart enough to know what to do, and the dog must be smart enough to get the hang of what you are doing. Put a dumb dog and a dumb owner together and they'll never get anywhere. Put a smart dog and a dumb owner together, likewise. Or a dumb dog and a smart owner together, also likewise.

It could not have been that all the dogs we have had were dumb. Some of them must have been smart. Yet, there hasn't been a trained dog in the lot. Some have possessed unusual aptitudes, like the one that can tell when it is time to go to bed and another one that could tell one automobile from another. But these were outcroppings of native intel igence.

We cannot make a dog lie down without grabbing it by two legs, wrestling it to the floor and holding it there. We cannot make a dog come when called without going into a protracted discourse that sounds like this: "Come here, Rover, please come here this minute, you will be a bad dog if you don't, now hurry up and come, aw please, Rover, be a good sport and come here. Look, here's a T-bone steak if you'll come here, Rover. That's a good dog."

We cannot make a dog shake hands, sit up, beg, bark on command, fetch a ball or a paper, sit down, or stand up. We cannot even make one of them go away on command. When we do not want them, they are always lying across our feet and when we want them they are a half mile away, intensely preoccupied with more important business.

But our ineptitude with dogs does not bother us. There is no mystery about it. We know we are not smart enough to train a dog. Moreover, we are not smart enough to care because we are not smart enough to train a dog. We are not smart enough to train a bird, a cat, a raccoon, a horse, or another human being, either.

We know our limitations. All we can do is live within them and with them, to the best of our own untrained ability. But we never have had a spaniel that barked all night. No sir. First time that happened, the spaniel was quieted by taking it into bed with the head trainer. That was seven years ago. There has been no barking problem since then. The spaniel still sleeps with the head trainer. And that's all we know about training dogs.

Thoughts For Today

If they sin against thee (for there is no man that sinneth not), and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;—I Kings 8:46.

We are all sinful. Therefore whatever we blame in another we shall find in our own bosoms.—Seneca.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

A G.I. Note To Mr. Attlee

Dear Clement

You have been too deep in the Red Chinese cocktail parties, birds-nest soup and bamboo-shoots, I guess, to think of including Old Baldy, Heartbreak Ridge, the ruins of South Korea, the road to Pusan or the shattered Korean homes full of blinded and crippled Korean infants. I don't see any reference to such visits on your Asiatic good-will jaunt. I read of plenty of toasts in champagne between you and the Red Chiese chiefs who sent their forces in to kill thousands of G.I.'s and British Tommies, but I note no reference to the kids who died for the free world, with or without lotus roots.

"I bring to you Mr. Chou En-lai, and will take back from you a message of peace and friendship between the people of China and Britain," you said in your final Peiping champagne session.

I can't figure out any two-dozen words that could so flatten the morale of servicemen everywhere, leave G.I.'s groggier or stagger the U.N. more.

What do those lotus roots do to you, Clem? It seems Mao and Chou En-lai gave the British delegation an all-out smile and swapped toasts to this good will, bowing and beaming in the mood of love and kisses. What gets me is that you didn't vomit. Hadn't you heard about the Red Chinese atrocities, the Panmunjom run-arounds, the bayonetting of kids as they tried to surrender, the thousands of missing prisoners of whom the Reds will give no accounting, the Red stockades, and the brain-washings?

Hadn't any of your seven British companions heard of Gen. Dean? Is it a secret to you that the Red Chinese made G.I.'s live in shacks the size of doghouses, sleep standing up and that they either die dor came out as skeletons? So you bring and accept messages of friendship and peace! How good-willish can you get?

I am just a G.I. who got sent to Korea, never got close to champagne in my two years there and was never sent into action on those icy hills with the words, "no matter what happens to you, it's all good -will. Those things that drop all around you in the clobbering are just messages of peace and friendship. You won't need ammunition. Just lotus roots!" Consequently I can't dig your "jolly good fellow" routine. I am all for peace and no more war. But cant we get it without the hogwash, hypocracy, mutual bowing and scraping and all the wine, cocktails and male-necking?

Yours faithfully,
G.I. Joe

Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. and Averell Harriman attended the races together the other day, and, since both are after the New York governorship, we assume they bet on "Hot Pursuit," "Coveted" and "Outsmart." With a possible hunch on "It's No Use," "Hasty Boy" and "Sleep Late."

Barney Balaban, Paramount chief, is to be given a whopping testimonial dinner by B'hai B'rith at the Waldorf September 26th, and the chairman of the affair is Samuel Markle, a new Haven boy who made good in the city. . . Markle came up the hard way, earning his way through Yale while working in the circulation room of a newspaper.

Wally Cox (Mister Peepers) is to replace David Wayne as Sakini in "Teahouse of the August Moon" for eight weeks and the kid has so much versatility that we think he will give a wonderful touch to the role. . . Cox made his first Broadway appearance four years ago in a monolog in a musical.

Who is lower in the human scale than a builder or promoter who not only robs Uncle Sam but cheats his fello wman in a the search for a decent home?

Looking Backward

FROM THE NEWS FILES

FIVE YEARS AGO — Mrs. A. L. Fisher and daughter, Winifred of S. Lincoln Ave. have returned from a vacation spent with relatives in Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri.

Canals On Ohio River Triple Commerce Tonnage Since 1928

EDITORS NOTE: Following is the first of a series of four stories on the past, present and future of commerce on the Ohio River. It is written as river cities prepare to observe the 25th anniversary of the dedication of the present system of locks and dams and as work is ready to start on a billion dollar program to modernize the system).

By HAROLD HARISON

CINCINNATI (AP)—Twenty - five years ago next month Herbert Hoover, then President of the United States, came here to dedicate completion of canalization of the Ohio River and its present system of locks and dams.

That system has been a major factor in increasing the tonnage of commerce hauled on the river from 20,128,518 tons in 1928 to 62,034,303 tons last year.

But even as Mr. Hoover stood in the rain at Cincinnati's Edin Park that Oct. 22, 1929, at a dedicatory monument, he said that, as an engineer, he could envisage the day when the locks and dams would become obsolete.

Twenty-five years later, cities and towns up and down the famous river are arranging to commemmemorate the silver anniversary of completion of the locks and dams —but they have become obsolete.

And even as the ceremonies are held, work is being started or readied to replace them with a new system which, U.S. engineers figure, will take 20 years to build and cost a billion dollars.

That billion dollar figure, says Col. John L. Person, Ohio River Division engineer, is being reckoned on present day constructio costs and dollar values.

The Ohio Valley, to many, may mean only the states bordering the stream but actually the Ohio River watershed covers parts of 14 states. They are Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Tennessee, Illinois, Mississippi, Indiana, Alabama, North Carolina, New York, Maryland, Virginia and Georgia.

The Ohio River serves them all, directly or indirectly.

"Westward the course of the empire . . ." is an expression that often has been used in connection with the 90-mile long river and no more fitting expression could be found.

Settlers crossing the mountains from the East even before 1800 headed for the Ohio and traveled its course by canoes to pave the way for the first settlements. A little later, still even before 180, came the kee'boats and flatboats hauling settlers and commerce down the river. Some made homes and started businesses along the waterfront and others continued on westward and south.

The problem of how to get back up the river economically with commerce was solved with the invention of the steamboat.

Now the commerce is handled by the modern diesel towboat pushing a string of barges. They came with the locks and dams which provided a nine-foot-deep channel for passage.

To many, riverboat commerce may seem a thing of the past but there now is an average of one tow operating on each nine miles of the Ohio River every hour of the day.

The tonnage of commerce carried is two and a half times that carried through the Panama Canal. It represents 36 per cent of all of the inland waterway commerce of the United States.

The Ohio has become the nerve center of a multi-billion dollar industrial expansion in the valley through the last few years alone. Tows hauling everything from shoes, nuts and bolts to automobiles, gasoline, oil,, and coal now are twice as long as the locks.

Therein lies the reason for the program of new locks and dams and it will be explained in the next of this series.

8 Lifesaving Rules Given For Labor Day

CHICAGO (AP) — Eight live-saving rules of driving were offered American motorists today—in advance of the Labor Day weekend traffic crush.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, observed that they might keep many a motorist from becoming a statistic during the holiday period. Council engineers estimated 390 persons will be killed next weekend in traffic.

At the head of the list is this suggestion: stay close to home if you can. Extensive trips on high speed rural roads increase your risk. The others:

2. If you go somewhere, start in plenty of time so you won't b tempted to hurry and take chances.

3. Keep your speed about the same as that of other cars on the road. Passing and being passed is one of the most dangerous highway maneuvers.

4. Don't try to pass a line of cars all at once. Stay behind until each car ahead has passed and you are directly behind the slower moving vehicle.

5. Avoid sudden stops and lane changing. Signal your intentions and make your moves smoothly.

6. Don't follow too closely. Give yourself plenty of room to avoid a crash if the car ahead should stop or turn unexpectedly.

7. If you are returning from a vacation or resort with a heavily loaded car, remember that the extra weight may require more acceleration time and stopping distance. The car's stability on cudves may be different too.

8. Use extreme care if you are pulling a boat trailer. Drive slowly enough to keep it fom whipping, avoid fast stops, and don't pass unless you have plenty of room.

Aug. 15 Rains Broke Drought Conditions Here

Drought conditions in the Salem area were broken Aug. 15 by welcome rains wrich saved the corn and potato crops and benefitted fields, L. H. Copeland, Millport weather observer, said today.

Precipitation during August totaled 4.28 inches, as compared to the normal precipitation of 3.37 inches, he said. Mean temperature during the month was 69.5 degrees; normal mean temperature during August in the past 62 years has been 68.9 degrees, Copeland stated.

The corn crop will be near normal this year, Copeland said. Conditions for fall plowing for wheat are good, he stated, and an excellent seed bed is being prepared. Pastures also are in good condition, he said.

A new oil well is brought into production every 21 minutes in the United States.

Boy Has Enough Of Hospital, Sneaks Out

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Artie Pullin, 4, had had enough of the hospital.

He underwent an emergency appendix operation at Crozer Hospital Friday. Yesterday, while his nurse was out of the room, he climbed out of his crib, slipped his bathrobe over hs pajamas, stuffed lollipops, comic books, crayons, color books and a toy gun in a paper bag and sneaked out a side door. He had forgotten only his slippers.

Bus driver Herbert Fagley was among the first to spot him, at a crossing, heading for the center of town.

Council Defeats Own Purpose On Big Trucks

SAN MARINO, Calif. (AP)—The Council in this municipality, one of the wealthiest communities per capita in the nation, overdid itself in tryng to keep heavy trucks off residential streets.

An ordinance scheduled to go into effect in 20 days would bar vehicles over 4,000 pounds from most thoroughfares.

That would keep the trucks off, all right. But it also would ban most luxury automobiles owned by the townspeople.

The Council is expected to boost the limit to 6,000 pounds in the very near future.

Ohio Farm Boy Doesn't Make Headlines, But Is Star Of Fair

By RICARDO J. BROWN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jack Wesell is 20 years old already and he hardly ever gets his name in the headlines.

Some of his contempories have moved wars, Hollywood and politics off the front pages. They've frightened and shocked the nation

But while they were making mayhem, Jack stuck around his dad's farm in Putnam County, raised Angus steers, helped with the chores and studied so he'd make Ohio State University, where he'll be a junior this fall.

Jack never has killed for thrills nor robbed a gas station. He treats old ladies with respect. He belongs to the 4-H, Future Farmers of American and he prefers animal husbandry to murder.

Surprised?

With the nation disturbed about juvenile delinquency and young criminals, one might be.

But there are hundreds more like Jack at the Ohio State Fair. And millions more like him at county and state fairs across the country.

Jack is ambitious, healthy, honest and decent—qualities that hardly ever make a story zing or get any one's name in the paper.

Those qualities have paid off in a crop of ribbons and prizes at the fair here.

One of his Angus steers Blackie, took grand champion honors in the all-breed open class. Jack also entered the champion and reserve champion Angus in the Junior Fair.

With hundreds of other young exhibitors, Jack gets up early in the morning to care for his livestock. He feeds, scrubs, curries them, carries water and shooes the flies off. He quietly and expertly tends to his business.

Jack has been coming to fairs for 10 years. This is the first time he's collected so many ribbons.

"We didn't think we had anything special this year," he said.

The "we" means Jack and his father, Fenton. Father and son are partners at their farm near Columbus Grove.

Sometimes it takes an event like a state fair to balance the news, to remind the public of the multitude of youths who have kept their feet on the ground. The good stock.

To remind them of boys like Jack—the heart, faith, strength and promise of America.

Nixon Says GOP Must Be Winner

Says Party Otherwise Will Become Extinct

CINCINNATI (AP)—Vice President Nixon, beaming confidence in public, has warned the Republican National Committee in private the party must come out on top in the 1954 congressional contests or face political extinction.

If the Republicans fail, "the swing is going to be completely to the left and the Republican party will be as dead as the dodo bird," Nixon said yesterday.

His pep talk to the national committee, holding a workshop conference in Cincinnati, was behind closed doors. But his remarks were overheard by reporters.

In public he forecast a record-smashing vote would give Republicans better control of both houses, where they now hold narrow margins. But in private he said:

"I think this election is a horse race. I think it is extremely close in the House, extremely close in the Senate.

"You could make a pretty good case for a statement that the Republicans are slightly behind in the House, slightly ahead in the Senate. Analyzing it in another way, it can be argued that they are slightly ahead in the House as well as the Senate. It could go either way."

However, he insisted the election could be won if the candidates pegged their campaigns on President Eisenhower's record of "peace, progress and prosperity."

Republicans won in 1952 because Eisenhower symbolized a demand for a change, Nixon said. The issues then were Korea, communism, controls and corruption, he said.

He said he thought the party had given the voters "the change they wanted," adding:

"We have brought dignity and respect to the highest office in this land."

Nixon told the party leaders he held neither a "wildly optimistic outlook" nor a pessimistic one.

"The Democrats have no great and compelling issue," the vice president said at a press conference. "The one big issue on which they relied has been pulled out from under them—and that was an economic depression or recession."

In private he warned that what he called power-hungry big city and left-wing Democrats would capture the government if the Republicans failed to conduct a winning drive.

This, he said, would be a disaster to the party and to the country.

Yankees "Back In Business" After Dropping Cleveland 4-1

Lopat, Berra Combine Talents To Win 'Must' Game Yesterday

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — "Yesterday we were out of business; today we're back in it."

Manager Casey Stengel was in an expansive mood after the New York Yankees' 4-1 "must" victory over Cleveland yesterday that sliced the Indians' first-place margin over the defending champions to 4½ games.

"It was a game we had to win," said Stengel, "and just as we've been doing for six years, we won it. That's why you can't count us out yet. Never sell the Yankees short until they are mathematically eliminated.

"The other guys don't have it wrapped up yet. They just think they have. Don't forget they haven't had a slump all season. But if we can beat them again tomorrow and keep the pressure on them, we might scare them into one.

"I'm not saying they'll choke. They never have. But they could slow up a little. I know one thing, we better not choke. We can't afford to lose any more."

As expected, the Cleveland clubhouse was quiet but no one appeared dejected. Manager Al Lopez accepted the defeat philosophically.

"I feel the same way about it now as I did Tuesday night," he said. "I still think that was the big one for us. No matter what happens tomorrow, we'll still leave here with a pretty comfortable lead. After all, it's too much to expect us to swep all three games here. This is still a pretty good club we're playing."

The Yankee battery of southpaw Ed Lopat and catcher Yogi Berra was the "whole" club yesterday. Lopat spaced nine hits for his 12th victory of the year and his 40th lifetime win over the Indians Berra laced three of the Yanks hits, including his 18th home run, scored twice and drove in two runs.

Stengel disclosed Lopat was only one pitch away from being dericked in the fifth inning. That was the inning in which Cleveland had the bases loaded with nobody out and Larry Doby, Al Rosen and Vic Wertz, the "heart" of the Indians' batting order, coming up.

The canny 36-year-old Lopat had a 3-2 count on Doby before he fanned the league's leading home run and runs batted in slugger. He then elated the crowd of 43,367 by disposing of Rosen on an infield pop and Wertz on a routine grounder.

"I talked to Lopat when he came in after that inning," Stengel said, "because I was afraid that might have taken too much out of him. I wanted to take him out before he got too tired. I had Allie Reynolds in the bullpen ready to go in. Lopat told me he'd let me know. Well, he never let me know so I let him in there."

Reynolds, like the rest of the Yankees, felt they must win the remaining three games with Cleveland to stick in the pennant fight.

"We can't depend upon anybody else to do the job for us, Reynolds said. "Nobody can help us. If we don't do it ourselves it just won't be done."

Michigan State, Illinois, Ohio State, Indiana and Northwestern contriboted 9 college football stars to the Deroit Lions' 1954 squad.

The San Jose State (Calif.) basketball squad has lost only one letterman. Last season the Spartans lost six of their first eight men to armed service and injuries.

When famed racing trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons celebrated his 80th birthday, his Bassanio scored a longshot victory in the $50,000 Monmouth Handicap.

Quakers Look Good In First Scrimmage Session

Regular Softball Play Concludes

Beloit Nips Amvets In Girls' Playoff

One playoff was begun and the stage set for two more to get underway tonight as regular season play in the city softball leagues officially concluded last night at Kelley Field.

The Girls' loop inaugurated playoff action as Beloit nipped Amvets 7-6. The Old Timers nipped Parker's 3-2 in a special game to decide the "A" second and third place outfits. Parker's, in third place, now will take on fourth place Electric Furnace in the first round playoffs.

In the Double-A circuit, Demings cinched the league regular season crown by walloping Butler Grange 14-6. It marks the second consecutive season that Deming's is the regular season titlist.

The playoffs will pit the third and fourth place teams in each loop together in a best-of-three series, with the winner moving up to take on the second place outfit. The winner will then battle the first place squad for the championship.

Beloit 7, Amvets 6

In the first playoff game of the season, Beloit stepped into the driver's seat in the first round Girls' series. The Amvets now will have to take two in a row to remain in contention.

The Amvets led 6-3 until a three-run outburst, sparked by Peg Carpenter's hit, knotted the count in the fifth. A bunt, two wild pitches and Sue Schwartzoff's sacrifice fly sent home the winning tally in the seventh.

The Amvets collected only four hits off Carpenter, but made them count for six runs. Midge Mordew led the attack with two of her teams four safeties and drove in a pair of markers. Marsha Stratton had two hits for the winners.

Helen Yeager fanned eight batters, and Miss Carpenter stuck out 6.

Old Timers 3, Parker's 2

Henry Miller hurled a 5-hitter and fanned eight batttrs to take the win.

Bill Schuster's sacrifice fly put Parker's temporarily ahead 2-1 in the third but Parker's tied it in the sixth on two singles and a double steal. The winning tally scored on Pinky King's sacrifice fly in the seventh.

George Maning of the losers won batting honors with three hits.

Deming's 14, Butler 6

A 13-hit barrage, featurig 11 extra - base blows, was more than enough to give Deming's the league crown.

A rash of homeruns featured the contest. Steve Cibula, Demps Balsley and Al Zocolo of Demings and Chuck Montgomery and Al Landwert of Butler all hit for the circuit in the slugfest. Dick Boughton, Ed Duco and Dave Ehrhart all came up with run-scoring doubles.

Duco and Boughton of the winners and Ken Woods of Grange each had three hits. Lowell Hahn and Cibula of Demings added two each.

The final "AA" standings:

	W	L
Deming's	17	6
Salem Too!	16	7
Mullins	15	8
Butler Grange	14	9

Salem Scores Twice Over Boardman High

By LOWELL FLEISCHER

Coach Ben Barrett's Quakers scored two touchdowns while holding the visiting Boardman High gridders scoreless in their first scrimmage session of the season Wednesday morning at Reilly Field.

Captain Jim Beard and Larry Stoffer tallied the two Salem scores. Each squad ran the ball five times for 10 downs duration.

Beard scored on the second play during the Quakers' second turn at running the ball. Jack Alexander took the ball on a good run most of the way, and Beard scored from about 10 yards out.

Stoffer scored with good downfield blocking on a pass from quarterback Jim Fife. While Fife, a senior, was in at the quarterback slot he got away several good passes.

Barrett has been working with both Fife and another senior, Ray Hertel, on their passing. The Quaker grid mentor emphasized that passes are the easiest way to score and that nothing can stop a good pass.

-:-

FULLBACK JACK Alexander did some nice running, as did Captain Beard at the right half position. Dale Middeker and Herb Haschen alternated at the left half slot during the workout.

At times the Salem line charged furiously into the Boardman offense, but on occasion it appeared as though the center of the Salem line was falling down on the job.

Dick Saltsman, a 180-pound senour out for his first year of football here, showed up well as a defensive linebacker. John Todd and Bill DelFavero came in on defense, also.

Bob Domencetti and Harold Garloch showed up well, although they missed several blocks. Curt McGee and Jim Crawford also looked good at times.

Larry Stoffer and Chuck Harris were at the end slots most of the time, with junior Tom Alesi also seeing some action.

John Ehrhart and McGee were at the tackle positions, with Garloch and Domencetti in as guards. Frank Corso was at center. Dick Doyle also saw action on the Salem line.

All of the Quaker linesmen should be in good shape by the first game. Barrett has been stressing offense at the first practice sessions and when the boys start working more on defense a notable improvement should appear in the line.

THE QUAKER backfield is coming along well and should have plenty of speed. Captain Jim Beard is very fast and so are Herb Haschen and Dale Middeker. Jack Alexander can roll too after he gets going.

The Boardman offense didn't get too far past the Quakers. Coach Howard Friend's charges took to the air in the later part of the scrimmage in an attempt to score. The Boardman receivers were there, but the quarterback had trouble getting the ball to them.

With Barrett and backfield coach John Cabas working with Hertel and Fife on passing and the Salem line practicing blocking and tackling, an overall improvement should be seen by Saturday morning when the Quakers go to Canton for a scrimmage session with the Central Catholic gridders.

Barrett gave the boys yesterday afternoon off, but practice resumed this morning at 9.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS
By The Associated Press

PITCHING — Warren Spahn, Milwaukee Braves, won his 9th straight game and 17th of season by beating Pirates, 3-1.

BATTING — Yogi Berra, New York Yankees, collected two singles and a homer, driving in two runs as the Yankees defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4-1.

Spahn Sparks Braves' Rally

Giants, Dodgers Both Lose; White Sox Split

By BEN PHLEGAR

Warren Spahn, whose sensational return to form in midseason made the National League pennant race a three-team affair, still is firing away with amazing precision although time probably has run out for his Milwaukee Braves.

After a mediocre spring and early summer during which he lost 10 games, Spahn hit his winning stride July 18. He won his ninth game that day, beating Pittsburgh. Last night, again against Pittsburgh, he won his 17th. In between he's gone unbeaten.

When Spahn started to win regularly, so did the Braves. They jumped from 15 games behind in late July into the thick of the race by mid-August.

Spahn's 3-1 victory over the Pirates moved the Braves within 6½ lenghts of the first-place New York Giants and within 2½ of second-place Brooklyn, both losers yesterday.

Cincinnati beat the Giants 9-7 in a game played under protest from the third inning on by the New Yorkers. Chicago defeated Brooklyn 9-5 for its seventh straight triumph.

Philadelphia replaced St. Louis in fifth place with a 5-2 victory over the Cardinals.

The New York Yankees kept their pennant hopes alive with a 4-1 conquest of Cleveland, cutting the Indians' first-place margin to 4½ games. The Chicago White Sox split at Boston, losing the day game 7-2 and winning the night game 6-3. Washington defeated Detroit 4-0. Baltimore and Philadelphia weren't scheduled.

Neither the Giants nor the Dodgers looked good in losing. The Dodgers committed four errors in the game, three in one inning and two on one play and their pitching was shaky. The bad inning was the sixth when the Cubs combined three hits with the three errors for four runs.

The Giants used seven pitchers in a vain effort to halt the Redlegs. Ted Kluszewski led the 13-hit Cincinnati assault with four singles and drove in three runs.

Third base umpire Frank Secory nullified a play in the Cincinnati third when Johnny Temple of the Redlegs was called out after stealing home. Socery said he had called time before the play. Manager Leo Durocher immediately declared he would finish the game under protest. Its doubtful the protest will stand up.

A grand-slam home run by Del Ennis in the first inning paved the way for the Phillies' victory in St. Louis.

Johnny Schmitz won his ninth game and pitched his second shutout in blanking Detroit on seven hits.

Reserve outfielder Karl Olson and rookie pitcher Tom Hurd were the standouts in Boston's daylight victory over Chicago. Olson dove in two runs and scored a third. Hurd, who pitched the last 4 1-3 innings and allowed only two men to reach base, received credit for his first major league victory.

Johnny Groth hit a two-run homer and walked with the bases loaded to force home a third run in Chicago's night-game triumph.

Score Hurls 1-Hitter As Indians Win 7-0

By The Associated Press

The Indianapolis Indians are within one game of clinching the American Association pennant following another brilliant performance by their brilliant rookie pitcher, Herb Score.

Score set down St. Paul's Saints on one hit last night as the Indians rang up a 7-0 victory. He yielded a single to John Bucha in the first inning; so he wasn't bothered by the pressure of a possible no-hitter. He struck out 15 to run his season total to a record 304.

Schneider Has Slight Lead In Yacht Event

Emmer Schneider and Ford Howell are currently engaged in a close battle for the championship in the second series of races sponsored by the Berlin Yacht Club.

As the sixth and final race in the second series approaches Sunday, Schneider holds a lead over Howell of a mere .0033 of a point. Schneider, in the first five races, is averaging .9154 while Howell is averaging .9121.

Howell won the first series of races, and, if he gives a good account of himself Sunday, may be a good bet to win the annual club trophy, which goes to the skipper who has the highest point average through both series.

In the second series, Frank LeVre is third with .8865, Will Albertsen is fourth at .7747 and Olan Dilworth is fifth with a score fo.6606.

In addition to the race Sunday afternoon, a program of color slides and pictures of previous races and club activity is scheduled for members and guests Sunday night Labor Day, the club membership and friends will enjoy social sailing.

Seixas, Trabert Cop Forest Hill Matches

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Vic Seixas, runner-up to Tony Trabert for the National Tennis Championship last year, one-half the 1953 Davis Cup team, and current forgotten man of the tennis circuit, may never see Australia again.

"Nope," he said today, "I may not go to Australia if they want me to play doubles only."

He didn't say "positively," but if he refuses to take the long jaunt, the United States will lose a certain point in the challenge round because, like night follows day, Seixas and Trabert can beat any Australian combination Coach Harry Hopman names.

"My only ambitions were to win at Wimbledon, win our national singles title and perform on a winning Davis Cup team," he said. "I've fulfilled one of them, winning Wimbledon. Now I have the singles on my mind. I think I can come through.'

Seixas, who stopped England's Roger Becker, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, in the third round, will have to await the outcome of the Bernard Bartzen-Neale Fraser match before swining into the fourth round. Fraser, an Australian was leading the national clay courts champion, from San Angelo, Tex., 7-9, 6-2, 9-7, 10-10 when darkness halted the match yesterday.

Otherwise, the only crack in the seeded ranks is the demise of Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., No. 6 who bowed to 19-year-old Jack Frost in the third round yesterday, 9-7, 10-12, 5-7, 6-4, 10-8.

In other fourth round matches Tom Brown Jr., of San Francisco, went against Sweden's Sven Davidson, and Ham Richardson met Owen Williams of South Africa.

Defending Champion Tony Trabert is the only player in the upper half of the draw in the fourth round. He turned back Canada's Lorne Main, 11-9, 8-6, 6-2.

Furgol, Palmer Head Rubber City Open Today

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—National Open Champion Ed Furgol, PGA Champion Chick Harbert and British Open Champion Peter Thompson today led a field of 56 golfers into the opening round of the $15,00 Rubber City Open.

Twenty-one of the 29 leading PGA money winners were in the four-day, 72-hole competition over the 6,600-yard, par 72 Firestone Country Club course. Top prize is $2,400.

Two of the nation's leading amateurs, Arnold Palmer of Cleveland and Frank Stranahan of Toledo also were entered.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — Art Aragon, 148, Los Angeles, stopped Ellwood Davis, 143, Philadelphia, 6.

PHILADELPHIA — George Justine, 140, Philadelphia, outpointed Mario Trigo, 142, Cauillo, Mexico, 10.

Polly Riley, 28, of Fort Worth, Tex., has won the Southern Amateur golf title for women five times.

Races Set Sunday At Sharon Speedway

Stock car racing will return to Sunday afternoon this week at Sharon Speedway. Promoter Jim Novak made the change from Saturday night racing because of the approaching Labor Day holiday and at the request of many fans.

The nine events carded will include eight stock car races and a special race for the "hard tops."

Novak said entries are being received for the special 400-lap, 200-mile race Sunday, Sept. 26, on the half-mile track. The stock car race, with all leading drivers entered, will be for a guaranteed purse of $4,000.

CIVIC CLUB 'ATHLETES' — Displaying mid-year (mid-1939) form, the Kiwanians and the Rotarians battled to a close softball decision at Centennial Park last night with Rotary edging out a 7-6 victory.

Shown at top, Rotary catcher Henry Anderson waits on a throw from the outfield as Dr. Wade McGhee streaks for the plate with a Kiwanis run.

In the second photo, Jim Schaeffer, Rotary's first sacker, gently steps on first base to put out Wally King who was trapped off base on a fly ball to the infield.

In the third photo, Kiwanian Bob Kaminsky rushes a wheel chair to the mound when Rotary hurler Jack Mosher appeared to be in trouble. Mosher refused to be lifted however, retired the side and left the field under his own power.

At bottom, the ball arrived in time on this play and Anderson waits to tag out base-runner Bruce Cox at the plate who was trying to score from second.

Rotary Beats Kiwanis In— Softball Game?

In a fun-filled, action packed softball "game" the Salem Rotary Club came from behind late in the tilt to eke out a 7-6 victory over the Kiwanis Club at Centennial Park Wednesday evening before a large crowd.

The contest was the first such affair in 30 years, although it is hoped that it may become an annual one from now on.

Amid wheel chairs, seltzer bottles and a lively play-by-play description by Horace Schwartz on the PA system, the Rotary Club trailed 6-3 at one stage but rallied to take the win.

Eliott Hansell paced the Rotary attack, blasting out a pair of homeruns, while Vic Zerbs, Jr., laced a round tripper for the losers.

In the pitching department, Alroy Bloomberg, Jack Mosher and Art Lang hurled for Rotary, and Rev. Harold Deith, Dr. George Jones and Dr. Wade McGhee handled mound duties for the Kiwanis Club.

Rotarian Jim Schaeffer and Kiwanian Bob Kamisky, both of the Broadway Lease Drug Store, served as the "Lopez" and the "Stengel" for their respective teams. Ward Zeller was umpire-in-chief.

Thirty years ago, in the only such previous contest, the Rotary Club defeated the Kiwanians.

Will Mathews, a spectator last night, was a player in the original game and recalled the affair. The late Harold Brian was one of the hurlers in that tilt and a catcher was Parker Lowell, who now lives in Atlanta, Ga.

Gavilan's Mumps Brings Experiment

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Boxing history was made last night with the first "studio-home audience" nationally televised fight show, but the only happy faces were those of four unheralded preliminary fighters.

It took a case of mumps to fulfill a prediction by the late Mike Jacobs, renowned New York promoter, that the day would come when prize fights would be held before unpaying audiences.

Kid Gavilan came down with the mumps Tuesday, 24 hours before he was scheduled to make his eighth title defense against Johnny Saxton. The promoters — Herman Taylor and the International Boxing Club of New York — were faced with the prospect of no snow at all.

Rather than break the uninterrupted four-year Wednesday TV fight show series, Taylor and the IBC put togtther a double windup program of six-rounders No admission was charged for the show at the Met, a small club with about 5,000 seats.

Some 2,000 fans — about the size of a large studio audience—turned out, most of them from the neighborhood surrounding the Met. The fighters, George Justine and Ellwood Davis, Philadelphia welterweights, and Bobby Bell, Youngstown, O., and Ike Chestnut of New York, each received $1,500 for their appearance.

The fighters were happy. They each got a nice chunk of TV money. But everyone else connected with the affair wasted no smiles.

Gavilan was home in bed with the mumps.

Saxton was down in the mouth at losing his opportunity — for the time being at least — to fight for the 147-pound crown.

Promoter Taylor and IBC representatives were busy counting up their financial losses because of the postponement and the expense of putting on the substitute show.

The sponsor of the TV show claimed he lost 20 per cent of his audience because of the Gavilan-Saxton postponement.

Walter J. Travis won the U. S. Golf Association Amateur title three times, was medalist six times.

Salem, Florists Tie In Playoff

Darkness Ends Game 2nd Time In Series

Setting what must be some kind of a record, the Salem Merchants and the East Liverpool Florists tied 1-all Wednesday at Negley for the second time in their championship County League championship playoffs.

The two teams also tied last Wednesday, but Salem took a one-game edge by winning Sunday's fray. The Merchants will try to take another decision in the best-of-five affair Friday at 6 p.m. at Cetennial Park.

East Liverpool tallied once in the first inning and Salem tied the score in the second. Neither team scored again for four frames and the game was called at the end of the sixth because of darkness.

Hank Siefke pitched for Salem allowing only 3 hits. Bill Odorizzi and Carson McNeely led the hitting with two safeties each. The locals also came up with two double plays.

Sunday, the North - South game is set at East Palestine, with proceeds earmarked for the County League's insurance fund.

Bomb-Thrower Attempts Killing

Fails Twice To Murder Man Living In Forest

CAROLLTON, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff's deputies tracked through a heaily wooded area today for a bomb-minded person who twice within the past week has tried to kill a 42-year-old sawmill operator.

Deputy Howard Seith said the victim, Leonard Kempf, had been unable to supply a motive for the two attempts to kill him with home-made bombs.

Kempf apparently suffered no serious injuries, although he complained of being "in a daze" for several days after an explosive went off under his bedsprings on Aug. 25.

The second attempt, in which three sticks of dynamite were thrown against his house but failed to go off, occurred Tuesday night.

Deputy Seith gave these details:

Kempf, who lives alone in a heavily wooded section near Salineville, returned home after work on Aug. 25. In preparing to go to bed, he threw three magazines on the bed.

A terrific explosion shattered the bed, blasted a hole through the floor and knocked Kempf unconscious. His 18-year-old daughter, who lives with Kempf's parents, later found him on the floor and took him to a doctor and later to the sheriff.

On the second attempt, Kempf and a friend, Paul Bradley, 48, were sitting alone in the home. Kempf heard a thud on the window sill and saw a burning fuse. The two men ran outside in the darkness and found the three sticks of dynamite under the window.

The person apparently intended to throw the bomb through the window but hit the sill instead and the fuse was torn loose.

in some of the accusations by Flanders, Morse and Fullbright that were previously left out.

That left it up in the air whether McCarthy and Williams could start presenting their defense next Tuesday.

Because most members will be attending the funeral of the late Sen. Burnet R. Maybank (D-SC), there will be no session tomorrow. Nor will there be a hearing Monday, Labor Day.

The remaining two categories of charges related to accusations that during the McCarthy-Army hearings the Wisconsin senator (1) encouraged government employes to violate the law by giving him secret information, and (2) produced a 24-page document based on a secret FBI report in possible violation of the law.

The committee already has gone into evidence on charges that:

1. McCarthy showed contempt of the Senate in declining to accept invitations to testify about his financial and other operations before a subcommittee which filed a report in 1952 raising numerous questions about them. Williams contended yesterday that subcommittee had no authority for the kind of investigation it conducted, so the charges should be thrown out. They were allowed to stand.

2. McCarthy used "vulgar, base language" against fellow senators. Associated Press reporter B. L. Livingstone testified that during an interlude in the recent McCarthy-Army hearings McCarthy remarked that "they should get a man with a net' and take Flanders "to a good quiet place."

Four Persons Fined For Traffic Violations

Three persons were fined by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer Wednesday for crossing the yellow center line while a fourth driver, Hugh Glascott, 20, of Lisbon paid $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a speeding charge.

Fined $10 and costs for the center line violation were: Chalmers Barnhouse, 29, of Columbiana; Samuel Allan, 38, of North Canton and Emil Bica, 36, of RD 1, Salem.

north on Lincoln to State. Contractors expect to be able to tear up the itersection, repave it and have it ready for traffic in a 17-day period.

As crews have made their way down State St. tearing up the pavement, they have made an attempt to keep the intersections of State and Lundy and State and Broadway clear of debris so that police, fire and ambulance emergency vehicles would be able to get to the north side of the city if necessary. Today, Safety Director William Reardon warned that vehicles parked on N. Broadway and N. Lundy that are obstructing these emergency routes would be towed away under police direction.

The six fire hydrants now in use on downtown State St. will be taken up and replaced with new ones, Hayes reports. However, they will be replaced one at a time so as to pronvide ample protectio in case of fire. Each individual water curb valve will be moved back in about a 20-minute period so users will be without water for a minimum amount of time.

With the 33 new "White way" lights in operation along downtown State and Broadway, city electrical crews have almost completed the job of dismantling the old poles which will probably be advertised for sale.

Patrol Urges Child-Safety Precautions

Cpl. E. W. Mallery of the Ohio State Highway Patrol at Salem today reminded motorists and parents of these facts as he stressed the importance of child-traffic-safety education.

"A total of 4,400 children under 15 years of age were killed in traffic last year throughout the nation. In addition, approximately 225,000 children were injured in traffic accidents in 1953, according to the National Safety Council."

Many of these injuries, he pointed out, will leave the youthful victims maimed or scarred for life.

"Motorists must come to realize treir responsibility for the lives of unpredictable children and must exercise extra caution when driving in areas where youngsters may be walking or playing, and parents, too, must be made to understand the serious danger involved, and teach their children safety precautions," he declared.

"Many people today do not realize that traffic is the number-one killer of children between the ages of one and 14 and that traffic accidents kill more children in this age group than any one of the highly - publicized childhood diseases," Cpl. Mallery stated.

"Figures for 1951, the most recent year for which complete statistics are available, show that for the one to 14 age group there were 3,888 deaths due to motor vehicle accidents. This was five times as many child deathsas were caused the same year by polio, and three times as many as were caused by tuberculosis. There were 800 fewer deaths from pneumonia and 600 fewer from cancer, in all its forms, than from traffic accidents in this age group," Mallery said.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

"Trigger" Burke, an artisan in his trade of swift murder, is known among his good companions as proud indeed of the fact that so skillful is his use of a machine gun that he has been offered as much as $10,000 just to wound a man. Not kill him—but make it look like a badly planted murder shot.

Victor Riesel

Elmer the Trigger, would therefore feel very bad if he learned that the mob which had pinned its hopes on him as a front for the newest and lushest of labor rackets, today values him more as a psychological than a lethal weapon.

-:-

THE MOB "SPRANG" Burke from Boston's old Charles street jail as part of its psychological warfare against labor—as well, of course, as against other elements which aren't enthusiastic over the crime syndicate's resurgence. And resurge it has.

The mob's prestige today, as a result of springing Burke, is enormous. That Borton jailbreak proved to undercover police contact, certain labor leaders and mobsters tempted to rush to grand juries that the crime syndicate again has a tremesdous functioning organization.

Otherwise it could not have had the detailed knowledge or the equipment necessary to reach into a big city prison and free "Trigger" Burke. Furthermore, the mob has other machine-gunners. So the "wise money" knows that Burke was snatched from jail as a public notice of mob power to all circles about to be shaken down.

Though the police in Philadelphia, New York and Boston have been particularly concerned with the Burke escape, the mob's defiance of East Coast gendarmarie is of significance right across to the West Coast.

FOR, WHEN BURKE was picked up last June 19, he was being pursued by at least three New York City detectives who knew that he was about to be used by the mob as the "muscle" in a drive to take over AFL stage hands and theatrical trucking local unions.

The very well-informed police knew from their own sources that "The Trigger" was to be the advance "troops' to infiltrate the television industry. From there he was to go into the legitimate theatrical industry and then attempt to work from this base back to Hollywood's studios.

The mob, having lost much of it. "take" on the New York and other eastern waterfronts, dreamed of the Capone salad days when the movie studios were shaken down for $1,000,000 in one year by Willie Bioff. Bioff is still alivve somewhere, and who knows?—like his old friend, George Scalise—Willie may be itching to return to the old hunting grounds.

WITH BURKE cooped up, it looked like the boys might have to fall back on some reserve. But, snatched from one of the grimmest pens, Elmer, the Trigger is additionally valuable as a psychological factor. Few now will dare defy any emissary who comes from the mob—as the Chicago boys once came to George Browne, then head of the AFL stage hands land says:

"We have a car and a bag of cement downstairs. Wanna play ball with us or take a ride to the lake?"

Browne played. The mob has tougher opposition now in the national stage hands union chief, Dick Walsh; so the boys planned to go after separate locals.

All this is just symptomatic of what's happening in a dozen big cities. The crimt syndicate is a loose coalition of boys reaching from New York, through Pennsylvania to Detroit and Chicago, where they have been knocking each other off at a satisfactory rate in order to discipline some of the old-timers who still think they can ride on Scarface Al's reputation and organization.

THE MOB IS STILL interested in terrorizing local unions, not only so the gangs can sell labor peace but to force the placement of millions of dollars worth of welfare insurance with their friends.

This is the big gimmick, though there is still money in phony locals like a new "independent" textile workers' outfit about to be launched in the South.

So it was good to hear the other day that Pennsylvania's Rep Sam McConnell, head of the House labor committee, had told New York and Chicago labor leaders that he was "quietly" investigating union and insurance welfare funds.

He was using ex-FBI accountants for swift probes in a score of cities --and, he said, he planned to hold his first public hearing Sept. 22 in Los Angeles. Investigators are probing that city now.

THEN THE COMMITTEE will "probably" go to San Francisco and "one other Pacific northwest city", Chicago, Kansas City, New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

There will be no sideshows, no "headline-hunting," no TV, McConnell said. Just the facts. Well, the facts are grim. But if McConnell searches them out and makes them public, he'll shake many a trigger man lose.

It's time, too, that decent men did not have to move in the shadow of killers for hire.

Small tender leaves of young spinach make a savory summer salad when they are mixed with crisp bits of crumbled bacon and French dressing. Try serving this salad, sometimes, with broiled fish fillets, mashed potatoes and buttered carrots.

Homemade Bread With Salads

A quick bread can do so much to make lunches satisfying. Bake the loaf in the cool of the morning; store it in a tightly covered container and you will have it on hand for a number of meals.

When we added cheddar cheese and caraway seed to a quick loaf recently, we found it was superb with a variety of hot-weather, main-dish salads. You can make this loaf two ways: starting from scratch or using a prepared biscuit mix. Prepared either way, the loaf is fine-flavored.

Sliced, it is the appealing color of golden sunlight. Undiluted evaporated milk and the cheese help to give it a delicious, moist, substantial texture. Another point in this bread's favor is that it slices beautifully thin, without crumbling, as soon as it is cool.

Some special salads to serve with this Caraway Cheese Loaf? Here are several nominations.

Try it with romaine or water cress (or other greens), cucumber and anchovies or small sardines.

It is delicious, too, with stuffed tomatoes. Cut each tomato into six sections, without separating them at the base; push the wedges gently apart and fill with a salad of egg, chicken, crabmeat, tuna or shrimp. Or use another vegetable such as kernel corn or green peas marinated in French dressing for the stuffing.

We also like the bread with a salad of lettuce, pineapple and mayonnaise mixed with Bahama-type mustard and lemon juice. Or use a mixed salad of seasonal fruits—peaches, pears, blackberries and melon plus oranges.

Caraway Cheese Bread

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine)
1 tablespoon caraway seeds
1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted)
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 egg
1 tablespoon butter (melted)

Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper; grease paper and sides of pan. Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt into large mixing bowl.

With a long-handled fork stir in grated cheese and caraway seeds until evenly distributed. Stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk-vinegar mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy.

Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper; cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

Caraway Cheese Bread

2 cups biscuit mix
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine)
1 tablespoon caraway seeds
1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted)
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 egg
2 tablespoon butter (melted)

Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper; grease paper and sides of pan. Put biscuit mix, baking soda, into a large mixing bowl; with a grated cheese and caraway seeds long-handled fork stir until cheese and caraway are evenly distributed.

Stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk-vinegar mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy.

Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper; cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

WAFFLE SANDICHES

1½ cups chopped cooked chicken
¼ cup finely chopped onion
¼ cup finely chopped sweet pickle
½ cup mayonnaise
2 cups pancake mix
2 cups milk
1-3 cup shortening (melted)
2 eggs
4 slices American cheese (cut in strips)

Mix chicken, onion, pickle and mayonnaise. Put pancake mix, milk, shortening and eggs in medium sized bowl; bat with rotary beater until fairly smooth; do not overbeat.

Pour batter onto hot waffle iron; bake waffles until steaming stops. Spread chicken mixture over waffles; arrange several cheese strips on top. Broil until cheese melts. Makes 5 servings.

GOLD CUPCAKES

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1¼ cups beet or cane sugar
1-3 cups shortening (at room temperature)
4 egg yolks
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
2-3 cup milk (at room temperat

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. In mixing bowl put sugar, shortening, egg yolks and orange rind. Beat together for 3 minutes — vigorously if you are using a hand rotary beater, at high speed if you are using an electric beater.

It is important to have the mixture "light" and well blended. Add sifted dry ingredients and milk at one time; beat 1 minute or more until batter is smooth. Spoon batter into 18 well-greased and floured muffin cups, filling one-half full; do not be tempted to fill more than this. Bake in hot (400 F.) oven 15 minutes.

Run small spatula around sides of cups and remove carefully; cool on rack. Makes 18 cupcakes. Top with chocolate frosting if desired.

Pears Make Fine Dessert

Fruit desserts are in vogue. Maybe because we have so many weight-watchers about. Maybe because homemakers are discovering what Europeans have known for a long time: fruit takes the prize if you want a light and refreshing last course.

Put Bartlett pears high on your list of fruits to use for dessert from now until October because they probably are one of your best fruit buys. The Bartlett is, of course, the bell-shaped pear of golden color, often with a touch of crimson on one side. It is juicy and fine-grained.

Our pet baked pear dessert is this one in which the fruit is basted with a light orange-juice syrup while it is in the oven. Grated orange rind adds extra flavor. Because the pear halves are left unpeeled and baked cut side down, they end up looking gorgeously inviting, their golden color heightened.

We served these orange-baked pears recently to guests, after a steak course, with no more embellishment than tht syrup spooned over them. But other times we have accompanied them with a smooth-as-silk soft custard sauce or a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Try this recipe. We think you'll treasure it.

Orange-Baked Pears

1 teaspoon grated orange rind
¼ cup strained orange juice
¼ cup sugar
4 Bartlett pears

Stir orange rind, orange juice and sugar together until sugar dissolves. Wash, halve and core pears. Place cut side down in baking dish (13¾ by 7½ by 1¾ is a good size if you use heat-resistant glass). Pour orange mixture over pears. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven, basting several times, until tender —about 35 minutes.

Baste pears with syrup in pan occasionally while they cool. Serve at room temperature or chilled, using one or two pear halves for each serving. If pears are topped with vanilla ice ceam, spoon the orange syrup over the ice cream. Makes 4 to 8 servings.

White and Gold Fruit Bowl

1 medium-sized cantaloupe
one 11-ounce can mandarin oranges (packed in light syup)
2 large Bartlett pears
2 to 3 tablespoons genadine
o raspbrry syrup

Cut cantaloupe in half; scoop out seeds Cut balls out of melon using melon scoop or ½ teaspoon measuring spoon. (Dice fine the cantaloupe left after balls are made and use in a dessert sauce if desired).

Empty oranges and their syrup into a bowl; add cantaloupe balls. Wash, halve and core pears; slice in thin fan-shaped pieces in bowl Add grenadine or raspberry syrup just be ore serving and mix gently. Makes 6 servings.

You'll find the grenadine syrup suggested for use in the White and Gold Fruit Bowl available in many large food markets. The raspberry syrup is available in specialty food shops; the best syrup of this sort we have ever tasted is imported from Germany and is made of pure raspberry juice and cane sugar.

Another pear dessert we should like to suggest is one we thought was most glamorous when we were very young. It is the famous concoction that simulates a bunch of grapes. To prepare it, cover the rounded side of a peeled pear half with softened cream cheese, thtn stud th cream cheese closely with halvs of seedless grapes.

Use a sprig of mint or anything else you like from the garden or rfrigtrator, for stem and leaves. Although this dessert is not so stylish now a it wa year ago, it i till fun to ariange and tate good.

Aid Budget, Buy Packaged Meats

We think one of the most practical ways to realize how important shopping is, is to take the Consumer Information Program. From its consumer home economics course, we pass on these pointers to help young marketers shop wisely.

A big chunk of a woman's time is spent food marketing. Do you realie how important shopping know-how is to a family's health and budget?

Training teen-age girls in intelligent, knowledgeable marketing is particularly important these days with the variety of frozen foods, pre-packaged meats, all kinds of soluble coffee and so on — not only for future homemakers but also for those girls who are already doing the family marketing while both parents are working.

Pre-planning: First prepare a marketing list of the foods, staples, etc., that will provide a balanced diet within your budget. The shopping list should be in a time-saving order which groups the various items usually found near one another in the store, in the approximate sequence in which they'll be picked off the shelves.

Selecting meats: In beef, look for an outside covering creamy white fat and fat marbeling running through the muscle; also, deep red color and fine grain. These are all signs of high quality.

In pork the signs of quality are the light pinkish-white color of the lean, medium soft, very white and abundant fat on the outside of the cut, as well as throughout the lean; bones should be pinkish on the cut surfaces. Poor quality pork has lean of deep red color, little fat and a course, flabby texture.

In veal, quality shows in the pinkish-grey color of the lean and its fine texture. It needn't be as firm as beef, and the fatty part should be pinkish-white but sparse. The bones of young veal are pinkish on their cut surfaces. Poor quality veal is very moist, limp, has a dull color and no fat.

Lamb. The fatty part of lamb should be very hard and abundant on both outside and inside of cuts. Like veal, lamb should, however, have firm, fine-textured and dull pinkish lean. The surest test of young lamb is its "break joint."

This is the joint at the lower part of the foreleg where the forefeet are removed. When broken this joint should have a rigid, pink, moist break. Older animals show a white, harder break.

In pre-packaged meats, labels on prepackaged meats tell the whole story: kind of meat and government grade, cut, cost per pound and total price and weight. A good general rule-of-thumb in picking weights is to figure you get four servings per pound boneless meats and two servings per pound of meats with bone.

BISCUIT TORTONI

10 coconut bar cookies
1 cup cream
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons rum flavoring
one 4½ ounce package homogenized instant coconut cream pudding

Crush coconut bar cookies with a rolling pin. Whip cream. Pour milk and rum flavoring into mixing bowl; add pudding; beat until well mixed. Fold into cream. Spoon into 3-ounce paper souffle cups, or other small paper cups. Sprinkle crumbs over top. Place in freezing comartment or refrigerator with control set for fast freezing, or in freezer. Freeze until firm, 2 to 3 hours. Makes 8 servings.

HEALTHBURGERS

1 pound ground beef
½ cup wheat germ
½ cup milk
1 tablespoon finely grated onion
1 teaspoon salt
(pulp and juice)
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Mix beef, wheat germ, milk, onion, salt and pepper thoroughly. Form into 6 patties; make them just wide enough so you can cook them all at the same time in a large skillet.

Melt butter in skillet, add patties and cook quickly so both sides are well browned and centers are faintly pink. Serve at once, pouring drippings in pan over patties. Makes 6 servings.

Cook green snap beans whole, then serve in bundles; "tie" each bundle with a strip of canned red pimiento.

BACON AND CAULIFLOWER

1 small head cauliflower (about ¾ pound
½ cup boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
milk
¼ teaspoon salt
pepper
¾ cup grated cheddar cheese
9 to 12 thin slices Canadian bacon
paprika

Cut tough green leaves away from cauliflower; separate into small flowerets; wash in cold water; drain. Add to boiling water with ¼ teaspoon salt; bring to a boil again, cover and cook rapidly until just tender — about 7 minutes.

Drain liquid from cauliflower into measuring cup; add enough milk to make 1 cup. Melt butter in saucepan over w heat; blend in flour; add milk mixture all at one time, and stir constantly until smooth.

Add ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper to taste; cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened and bubbly. Over low heat stir in ¼ cup of the cheese until melted; add drained cauliflowerets and reheat.

Put bacon in cold heavy skillet and fry until lightly browned on both sides. Arrange bacon slices in small shallow baking dishes (about 6 inches across top); spoon creamed cauliflower into dishes, having edges of bacon show.

Spinkle with remaining ½ cup cheese; dust with paprika. Place under broiler for 1 or 2 minutes to melt cheese. Serve at once. Makes 3 servings.

Treat With Pizza Sandwiches

Our young nieces and nephews are rabid pizza enthusiasts. Indoors or out, give them pizza and all is well. For them, and for others who want pizza recipes, here goes—

Jumbo Pizza Sandwich
(Yield: 24 servings)

One (1-pound) loaf French or Vienna bread
¼ cup sliced or chopped ripe olives
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teasoon crushed oregano
¾ teaspoon salt
½ tablespoon finely chopped chives or green onions
1 cup (½ pound) ground beef
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 (6-ounce) can tomato paste
1 (8-ounce) package ready-sliced process cheese

Cut French bread in half, lengthwise. Combine olives, pepper, oregano, salt, chives, beef, Parmesan cheese and tomato paste.

Divide meat mixture evenly and spread over cut sides of bread. Place on a cookie sheet, spread side up, and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Remove from oven.

Cut cheese slices in half, diagonally. Cover meat mixture with 8 overlapping triangular slices of cheese. Return to oven for 5 minutes. Slice each sandwich into 12 sections and serve hot.

Pizza

Package Hot Roll Mix
1 or 2 pounds sausage meat or links
½ pound Italian or sharp cheese shredded
½ cup minced onion
8 ounce can tomato sauce
6-ounce can tomato paste
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon oregano
⅛ teaspoon garlic salt
grated parmesan or sharp cheese parsley, finely cut cooked mushrooms, sliced

Prepare dough as directed on hot roll mix package. Let rise until light, 30 to 60 minutes. Pan fry sausage until pink color disappears; drain. (If link sausage is used, brown lightly slice). Pan fry onion lightly in 1 tablespoon sausage drippings.

Add tomato sauce, tomato paste, seasonings. Divide dough into four parts. Flatten each piece and pat into bottoms of four 9 or 10-inch pie pans. Brush with olive oil or sausage drippngs.

Arrange half of cheese on dough. Cover with tomato mixture. Top with remaining cheese and sausage. Sprinkle with grated parmesan or sharp cheese, parsley and mushroom slices. Bake immediately in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot).

If this must wait for guests, in advance prepare dough in pan, brown sausage and have tomato mixture ready to combine.

Crisp crumbled bacon, chopped chutney and cream cheese make a savory canape spread. Add a little cream to the cheese to soften it when you are mixing it with the bacon and chutney.

A Pork Treat Indoors or Out

If you are the prepare-beforehand type of outdoor cook, we think you will be enthusiastic about our latest discovery — Barbecued Porkies.

In the quiet and convenience of your own kitchen, you simmer a thrifty boneless pork shoulder butt until tender, and make up a quick and spicy tomato barbeque sauce.

Then you pack your picnic basket with ham, sauce, sliced cooked potatoes and fat for frying, rolls, skillets, coffee and coffee pot, long-handled fork and spoon, toasting rack, and the necessary eating utensils.

You also take along something for outdoor nibbing: celery and radishes with cheese, for instance. For dessert you supply watermelon or some other refreshing fruit.

When the coals are glowing, ham and sauce are put toggether in one skillet and heated, potatoes fried golden-brown in the other skillet, rolls toasted, coffee made.

It's a neat and orderly cookout—but mighty good eating! Chances are that if you like these Barbecued Porkies as much as wel do, you will prepare them for indoor suppers too.

Barbecued Porkies

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ½ cup finely diced onion
- ¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup chili sauce
- 1 cup tomato juice
- 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- 6 tablespoons cider or other salad vinegar
- 2 to 2¼ pounds boneless smoked pork shoulder butt (cooked)
- 10 sandwich buns

Melt butter in large skilet; add onion and cook over low heat until it begins to get tender. Add sugar, salt, chili sauce, tomato juice, Worcestershire and vinegar; simmer, stirring occasionaly, until sauce has thickened somewhat — about ½ hour.

Store in covered jar in refrigerator. At serving time, quickly heat ham (cut in about ¼-inch thick slices) in sauce. Serve ham and sauce over split toasted sandwich buns. Makes 10 servings.

To cook the pork butt, cover it with boiling water in a kettle; add a slightly crushed garlic clove, 6 whole cloves, 6 peppercorns, a bay leaf; cover and simmer until tender — 1½ to 2 hours.

"The Complete Book of Barbecue and Rotisserie Cooking" by Jim Beard, is a book we can recommend to anyone interested in the direct-heat method of preparing food.

Whether you do your barbecue cooking outdoors over coals or indoors on an electric spit, you will find here hundreds of suggestions for management and preparation by a man who knows a powerful lot about good food. And there's a chapter on "Cooking with Smoke" too.

The discerning comment all through the book makes it extremely readable. Among the recipes, you will find many simple ones that are particularly delicious. Here for example is one:

Sauteed Potatoes

Sauteed potatoes are easily prepared for outdoor eating. Slice peeled raw potatoes fairly thin and soak them in cold water for an hour or so. If you are cooking steak or roast beef, cut away a little of the beef fat or get a little extra from the butcher.

Cut the fat very fine, put it in a skillet (a heavy iron or cast-aluminum skillet is best) and let it melt.

You will need about 1 tablespoon suet per potato. When it is melted and the bits of suet have turned crisp, add the potato slices, dried on paper towels, and let them saute gently.

Turn them often with a large spatula. They should be nicely browned, crisp and thoroughly cooked through. Don't break them as you turn them. Add salt and plenty of freshly ground black pepper. Potatoes cooked this way with bits of crisp suet are unforgettably good and just the thing with hearty outdoor roasts or steaks.

CARROTS AND GREEN BEANS VINAIGRETTE

- 6 medium-sized carrots
- One No. 303 can (15½ ounces) whole green beans
- 1 small onion
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon other salad oil
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon sugar
- lettuce
- minced parsley

Peel carrots with swivel - type vegetable parer; cut in half crosswise; then cut each half in 4 to 6 long strips. Cook rapidly in a small amount of lightly salted boiling water just until tender — about 8 minutes; drain.

Add carrots to drained green beans; save bean liquid for use in soup or sauce. Peel onion cut in thin strips and add to carrots - beans. Mix together oils, salt, sugar and dash of pepper. Mix with vegetables. Refrigerate for at least 1 hour, stirring several times. At serving time, line bowl with lettuce and pile marinated vegetables in center; sprinkle with minced parsley. Makes 6 ervings.

PEGGY'S SPONGE CAKE

- 6 eggs (separated)
- 2 egg yolks
- 1½ cups sugar
- grated rind an juice of 1 lemon
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- 1½ cups sifted cake flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¾ teaspoon cream of tartar

Beat the 8 egg yolks with rotary beater (hand or electric) until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually beat in sugar, a tablespoon at a time, then lemon rind and juice and vanilla.

Gradually sift flour over yolks, folding it in as you do so until combined. With clean beater, beat egg whites and salt until foamy; add cream of tartar; beat until stiff but not dry. Fold into egg-flour mixture.

Turn into ungresed 10-inch tube pan; bake in slow (325 F.) oven 1 hour. Invert and cool 1 hour. Loosen sides with spatula and center with small paring knife; ease from pan. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar or frost as desired.

Teen Agers Like Patio Cooking

We went to Greenwich, Conn., to watch Mary Ann Gardner of the local high school do her stuff with an electric skillet on the patio. She and her two young friends think patio cooking tops.

Chicken legs with ham was Peggy's dish. "It's cinchy to do," she explained. The electric skillet really does one-burner cooking, but with seven different controlled temperatures.

It can be used anywhere its electric wire can be plugged in. It is ideal for cooking omelet, casserole dishes, etc., indoors and out.

Here's the chicken and ham recipe:

Preheat the skillet at 5. Melt shortening. Alternate the chicken legs with wedges of ham, about ½-inch thick.

Season with salt and pepper. Saute until golden brown, about 20 minutes. Serve chicken legs with paper napkins for finger eating.

Mary's more adventurous dish, that started out in life as the favorite of Italian hunters, is called Chicken Cacciatore. This adaptation is for electric skillet.

Chicken Cacciatore Presto

Three to 3½ pound chicken
flour
salt
pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
1 medium onion, sliced
1 clove garlic, finely minced
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
1 large tomato, peeled and quartered
1 cup tomato sauce
½ cup water
2 tablespoons dry white wine or extra water
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 green pepper, choped
½ red pepper, chopped

Cut chicken in serving pieces. Dredge in seasoned flour. Preheat electric skillet at 5½. Melt shortening and brown chicken on all sides. Combine onion, green pepper, red pepper, garlic, tomato, tomato sauce, water, wine or additional water, salt and pepper and pour over chicken.

Reduce heat to 4. Cover and simmer until done, adding liquid if needed. Reduce heat to 2½ and serve hot from skillet.

Delicious salad: Crisp leaves or cooked beets and crisp cucumbers arranged on them. Serve with mayonnaise to which you've added a little lemon juice and a pinch of taragon or basil.

A hollow-ground knife means that the blade will be very thin and sharp at its cutting edge. This thin edge is easily nicked by careless handling, so keep your hollow-ground knives separated in a knife box.

Try Homemade Peach Sodas

Now is a "peachy" time to add more fun to living. This is the season for fresh peaches and ice cream manufacturers are using this luscious fruit prodigally. So let's get in on the fun.

In pint and half-gallon containers, pre-packaged peach ice cream is economical and easy to pick up at most food stores along with other food purchases. The even more economical half-gallon carton provides 16 generous portions and is on call for several dessert forays.

Peach Sodas
(Yield: 8 servings)

Fruit Bowl Peach Soda:
2 cups mixed cut-up fresh fruit (sliced peaches, berries or other seasonal fruit, slightly sweetened)
1 quart milk
2 pints pre-packaged peach ice cream
carbonated water

Put ¼ cup mixed fruit in each of 8 tall glasses. Add ½ cup milk to each glass with ¼ pint (1 scoop) peach ice cream. Stir; fill glasses to top with carbonated water.

Broadway Peach Soda

Use ¾ cup chocolate syrup instead of mixed fruit. Put 3 tablespoons syrup in each class; continue according to directions.

Peach ce Cream Meringues

Three egg whites
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
⅛ teaspoon salt
¾ cup sugar
8 cling peach halves
2 pints pre-packaged peach ice cream

Beat egg whites until foamy; add cream of tartar and salt; beat until stiff, but not dry. Gradually add sugar and beat until very stiff.

Cover baking sheet with heavy bown paper. Pile meringue into 6 rounds about 6 inches in diameter. Make a 2 inch depression in the center.

Bake in a very slow oven (275 degrees F.) 1 hour. Cool. To serve place a peach half in each meringue; top with scoop of peach ice cream and Melba Sauce.

Melba Sauce
(Yield: 1½ cups)

One cup fresh raspberries, crushed
¼ cup currant jelly
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon water

Combine crushed raspberries, jelly and sugar; bring to a boil. Blend cornstarch and water; mix with small amount of hot mixture. Stir into raspberry mixture and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Strain and cool.

Pie shell trick: Fit the pastry into the pan after it is rolled out, then pat out the air carefully with a small ball of the dough.

Miniature Pizzas, Labor Day Treat

Quick delicious little pizzas have just the thing for unexpected guests over Labor Day at home. We learned about them recently at a reunion party given by Charles A. Eckburg, president of the Bordon Chetse Co.

Three years ago the genial Mr. Eckburg flew a group of editors to Wisconsin to study the cheese industry first hand. He gives a reunion of that cheese safari every year at New York's Stork Club. We all relive those wonderful days in Wisconsin.

Here are two ways to use American cheeses for pleasant entertaining.

Miniature Pizzas
(Makes 20 individual pizzas)

One (10-ounce) can Bake 'n' Eat Biscuits
1 (6-ounce) can tomato paste
2 tablespoons dry Vermouth, if desired
1 (3-ounce) package Pippin Roll cheese dash of pepper
dash of oregano
grated Parmesan cheese

Arrange biscuits on baking sheet; do not have edges touching. Bake according to package directions. Remove from oven; split each biscuit in half.

Arrange halves on baking sheet. Mix together tomato paste and Vermouth; add pepper and oregano; blend well.

Place about a tablespoonful of mixture n tach biscuit half. Cut Pippin Roll cheese into 20 thin slices and place one slice on top of each biscuit.

Sprinkle each with Parmesan cheese. Return to hot oven (450 degrees F.) and bake about 5 minutes or until cheese melts. Serve at once.

Cheese Ball

Two (3-ounce) portions Roquefort cheese
2 (5-ounce) jars process Cheddar cheese spread
4 (3-ounce) packages cream cheese
2 tablespoons grated onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup ground pecans
½ cup finely chopped parsley

Let cheeses soften at room temperature. Combine cheeses, onion, Worcestershire sauce; blend well.

Stir in ½ cup pecans and ¼ cup parsley. Shape mixture into ball. Place in bowl lined with waxed paper. Chill overnight.

About 1 hour before serving, roll ball in mixture of remaining pecans and parsley. Place on platter and surround with crisp crackers and fruits in season. Serve as hors d-oeuvre.

Try Georgia Peach Easy Jam Recipes

Our good friend, Julie King, who hails from Georgia—famous for its peaches—has been telling us how to make peach jam without headaches. Here are two of her recipes:

Peach and Ginger Jam
(Yield: 8 medium glasses)

3½ cups prepared fruit
½ cup sliced candied ginger
4½ cups sugar
One 2½-ounce box powdered fruit pectin.

First, prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 pounds soft, ripe peaches. Chop very fine or grind. Measure 3½ cups into a large saucepan. Slice fine about ¼ pound candied ginger. Measure ½ cup into saucepan.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well.

Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Skim off foam with metal spoon.

Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly to prevent foating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin.

Peach Jam
(Yield: 11 medium glasses)

4 cups prepared fruit (about 3 pounds ripe fruit)
¼ cup lemon juice
7½ cups sugar,
½ bottle liquid fruit ectin

First, prepare the fruit. Peel and pit or core about 3 pounds fully ripe peaches. Grint or chop very fine. Measure 4 cus into a very large saucean. Add ¼ cup lemon juice.

Then make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin.

Next time you make hamburgers for your family, give them a surprise. Put the hamburgers under the broiler until they are about half done on one side, well done on the other. Put a slice of cheese on each half done side and continue broiling until the cheese is melted and lightly browned. Serve at once in buttered toasted hamburger buns accompanied by pickles.
